THE HEARTBEAT OF WHITE REVOLUTION

THE MOVEMENT TODAY by JAMES MASON

More proof of the vitality and viability of the National Socialist movement in the United States, if any be needed, is the magazine you are now holding and reading.

The term invincibility has often been overworked and misused.

People have used it in describing armies and fortresses of his- tory... None, or very few, of which are still with us today. For as individuals can do to give some reason or another they continue to miss the mark of accuracy in applying that strong and significant term.

The fact is that nothing which lives and breathes or functions as an organization or machine is truly invincible and everlasting.

No human being, no castle, no nation. For those with a belief in an afterlife, there may be the human spirit perhaps. But in any event, the two things which come nearest to qualifying as invincible are White, Aryan blood and the thoughts and instincts it produces.

National Socialism is the greatest by-product to have sprung from our blood to date. As long as there exists one, there will exist the other. Should one perish, so shall the other as a di- meaning to our existences and, more importantly, to render our duty to the future, is to FIGHT for it in the BEST way we possibly are able: NOW, in the PRESENT. Unless we fight and claim sibly are able: NOW, in the PRESENT. Unless we fight and claim as today, there will be no tomorrow.

As National Socialists, we de- clare to the rest of the world our pride in being WHITE. As National Socialists, we give meaning to our lives by not only FIGHTING for that mighty IDEA but also by becoming a living, breathing PART of it ourselves.

The Bookstore Attack: Why & What Next?

TEXT OF PRESS RELEASE by ALLEN VINCENT, CMDR, N.S.W.W.P.

We opened the Rudolf Hess Bookstore to provide a place for anyone in the Bay Area to be able to get books and other publications usually not found in a public library or bookstore.

The location was purely coincidental. The store plus living quarters combination plus the reasonable rent that determined the location. We chose the name of Rudolf Hess because he was a National Socialist and a man of peace. For this he is still in solitary confinement after thirty-six years.

Surely, to have honored such a man could not have provoked this attack.

We chose the Swastika not only because it is the sign of National Socialism but also because it is the symbol of the Aryan Race and has been since the days of the Vikings. It has even been used as a good luck symbol by American Presidents. So surely there is nothing "un-American" about it, contrary to the ravings of the attackers and their leaders. The Aryan Cross did not provoke this insane attack and destruction. If it had been the symbol alone then the destruction of the Swastika alone would have been enough.

But, no, since inside this bookstore were people who distributed books and other publications that proved with documented evidence that there is a Jewish conspiracy, lies and deceit, this organized mob of Jews had to get inside to destroy these publications and, if possible, also the people that were involved in the distribution of the books.

There are many pornography bookstores and at least one Communist bookstore here in San Francisco. Yet these spreaders of filth and lies are permitted to operate their stores without any interruption.

The Rudolf Hess Bookstore, which promoted distribution of proven facts to stimulate preservation of the White Race and Nation, was wiped out by the fiercest mob attack during this decade.

This attack was not the lunatic doing of a crazed loner. This was a premeditated attack by the Jews whose lies were threatened with exposure. Perhaps all these "survivors of Auschwitz" were enraged at the book, "The Hoax of the Twentieth Century", or, "Auschwitz: Truth or Lie?"

We had a woman and child inside the store but no firearms because we wanted to harm no one... not even our murderous attackers. We provoked no violence, we were friendly with all our neighbors. Yet, during the five days we were open, we had our window broken, paint splashed against the door and the sign, even the sidewalk was painted by someone which showed a Jewish star and the initials of the Jewish Defense League.

We intend to take this matter to court and file charges against those involved and responsible.

In the meantime we shall continue to provide our publications

P. O. Box 1981
San Francisco, Calif.

Dear Mr. Vincent:

Federal prosecution of the matters the subject of your complaint of April 5, 1977, must be declined. Applicable federal statutes do not cover the alleged misconduct.

18 USC 242 reaches only civil rights deprivations at the hands of public officials or by other state action. There is no allegation or known evidence that the perpetrators of the mob action alleged were acting other than as private citizens.

18 USC 241 (the other pertinent statute) covers only civil rights deprivation when the perpetrators "go in disguise on a highway . . ." or when they act in a conspiracy. There is no allegation or any known evidence that the perpetrators were in disguise. There is no allegation or known evidence that the mob action was pre-planned or consciously coordinated as opposed to being a spontaneous action by a number of individuals acting simultaneously.

The individual actions of Allan Weiss, in allegedly committing malicious mischief, and of Morris Weiss, in later allegedly assaulting you, are not cognizable under federal law. Accordingly, the foregoing comments do not reflect on the merits of those allegations.

Very truly yours,

Nazi store charges dropped

By Tom Hall

No federal charges will be filed in connection with the ransacking of a Nazi bookstore here last April 1.

Federal prosecution had been requested by the head of the local Nazi Party whose 3608 Taraval St. bookstore was attacked and burned by a crowd armed with sledgehammers and crowbars.

In a letter yesterday to Allen Vincent, housepainter, who operated the Rudolf Hess bookstore, Asst. U.S. Atty. David Bancroft said, "Applicable federal statutes do not cover the alleged misconduct."

Vincent complained last April 12 that the assault on the store "was obviously a premeditated criminal conspiracy to violate my civil rights."

He accused Morris Weiss and his son, Allan, of committing 11 felonies, including "intent to commit premeditated murder."

The father and son were arrested by police the night of the raid and charged with malicious mischief. Morris Weiss was also charged with aggravated assault.

Charges were dropped later, however, "because of substantial evidentiary problems and in the interests of justice," said San Francisco Dist. Atty. Joseph Freitas.

Bancroft, who declined prosecution under civil rights laws after reviewing a report of a "limited" FBI investigation covering police and media reports and witnesses, told the head of the National Socialist White Workers Party here:

- One section of the law covers only civil rights deprivations at the hands of public officials or by other state action. "There is no allegation or known evidence that the perpetrators of the mob action alleged were acting other than as private citizens."

- Another pertinent section covers only civil rights deprivation when the perpetrators "go in disguise on a highway . . ." or when they act in a conspiracy. "There is no allegation that the perpetrators were in disguise or that the mob action was pre-planned or consciously coordinated as opposed to being a spontaneous action by a number of individuals acting simultaneously."

The alleged misconduct of the Weisses, Bancroft said, does not come under federal law.

U.S. Won't Prosecute

Nazi Bookstore Case

The U.S. attorney's office formally declined yesterday to prosecute the group that vandalized and burned a Nazi bookstore in the Sunset district on April 1.

David P. Bancroft, an assistant U.S. attorney, sent a letter declining prosecution to Allen Vincent, head of the National Socialist White Workers party.

Vincent's group opened the Rudolf Hess bookstore, flaunting Nazi emblems and literature, at 46th Avenue and Taraval street. The store later closed.

Vincent, in a letter to the U.S. attorney, claimed his group's civil rights were violated by a mob action.

Bancroft yesterday wrote Vincent, "There is no allegation or known evidence that the mob action was preplanned or consciously coordinated as opposed to being a spontaneous action by a number of individuals acting simultaneously."

The local district attorney had also declined to prosecute.

PORTRAIT OF AN AMERICAN PATRIOT

by JAMES PARKER

In October, 1974, the Charles-ton, W.Va., police were baffled by two murders, so they institu-ted what is commonly known as a "round-up of suspects". Among the people arrested was Richard Bradley. The police later admit-ted that the only reason that Bradley was arrested was that he was a White racist who was known to carry a gun to defend himself. Bradley was later exa couple of times for raping young White boys and several times for robbing old and weak White prisoners - and he was al-ways trying to get his "tough brothers" moved into the bull-pen with him so they could ter-rorize all the "honkies" as he referred to the White prisoners.

This nigger was twenty-two years old and weighed two hun-dred and twenty-five pounds. Richard Bradley is age thirty-eight and weighs about a hundred immediately end this sub-human's life. It seemed that this "poor colored boy" - as the Jew-press called him - had made a fatal mistake.

If the fight had gone the other way and the nigger had killed Richard, he probably would have gotten one to five years in the pen and that would have been af-ter all sorts of "civil rights" groups had protested, raised de-fense funds, demonstrated and raised general hell. But Richard is White, his name isn't Hurri-cane Carter, Angela Davis, Jo-anne Little or Gary Tyler, there wasn't any defense fund. Bradley is a Nazi, not a Communist. There were no demonstrations. Richard was forced to accept a court-appointed Jew lawyer who barely made any effort to offer a defense.

Nigger cops were allowed to handle the case. Two known pet-ty thieves had their charges dropped to testify against Brad-ley (The same two disgraces to our Race incidentally that the same nigger had robbed and ra-ped.) Bradley was crucified by the Jew-owned papers and tele-vision. The prosecuting attorney even made the statement to the Charleston Gazette that this was the only case that he had ever handled that made him sorry there was no death penalty in West Virginia.

The nigger was made into a martyr and the defense wasn't allowed to present any evidence about this "fine, young colored boy" or his record. There was no real trial but a travesty of justice perpetrated by a Jew-onered of any complicity in the murders.

But while he was in jail, Rich-ard met the plague that every White man who is arrested these days must face: The "bull-pen nigger". This particular nigger had been moved in and out of every bull-pen in the Kanawha County Jail - once for almost beating a White epileptic to death, and sixty-five pounds at his peak. So the nigger thought he had another weak "honkie" to bully and rob. But that was one nigger who made a sad mistake.

Richard, due to his case in appeals court, declines to make any statements, but two traitor White rats said that after the nig-ger started to try to intimidate Bradley, Richard proceeded to

Nazi Party thriving in Bay Area

By DEAN CALBREATH

"I pledge allegiance to Adolf Hitler," the people in the hall recite, their arms thrust forward in a Nazi salute, "the immortal leader of our race...."

A huge swastika banner hangs in front of them, flanked by several smaller flags and the black and silver thunderbolt standard of the Gestapo.

This article is the first in a three-part series examining the American Nazi Party. Part One profiles the leaders of the movement in San Francisco.

"and to the new order for which he stands...."

The room is decked with portraits of Hitler. In an alcove to the rear, an elderly man sells Nazi armbands and gold-plated swastika bracelets.

"one great cause, sacred and invincible...."

A knaki-clad stormtrooper watches over the crowd, a pistol at his hip and a slight sneer rolling over his mouth.

"White Power!"

The scene described above did not happen in Germany in the 1930s. It happened in San Francisco recently, during a meeting of the local branch of the American Nazi Party.

The American Nazi Party was formed in 1958 by George Lincoln Rockwell. At that time, as he wrote in his autobiography, he "proclaimed his intention to do for the white people of this country what Adolf Hitler had done for the Germans — rescue them from the international Jewish conspiracy."

Rockwell explained that he had found "abundant mental sunshine" in Hitler's book "Mein Kampf." "Word after word stabbed into the darkness," he wrote, "like thunderclaps and lightning bolts."

Rockwell molded his party after Hitler's German movement, hoping he and his followers could create "an all-white America, dedicated to the principles which made our Western civilization great." Before he could see that come to pass, though, Rockwell died. He was shot to death in August, 1967, by fellow Nazi John Patler.

Patler, a former editor of Stormtrooper Magazine, had been expelled from the party four months earlier when he caused dissension among party members by saying dark-haired Aryans are superior to light-haired ones. He shot Rockwell to revenge the incident.

After Rockwell's death, the party split into two wings. The most active branch is the National Socialist White Workers' Party (NSWWP), led by Allen Vincent of San Francisco.

Allen Vincent is a self-described "graduate of California's penal institutions." He spent much of his life travelling from one reformatory to another and he has been locked up in the psychiatric wards of San Quentin and Folsom prisons.

"I don't think there's anything genetically criminal about me," Vincent told The Daily Californian recently. "I honestly think I'm a victim of the system — a system which discriminates against the white race."

Vincent met Rockwell in the early 1960s. Rockwell appointed him head of the National Socialist Youth Corps, a position he held until Rockwell's death. After the murder Vincent organized his own party on the West Coast.

The basis for much of Vincent's political action is his hatred for the Jews.

"I really down deep in my heart hate Jews. I hate them more than anyone can describe," Vincent said.

"Jews spend their whole lives trying to pervert, subvert and destroy the laws of nature. I don't really hate blacks — they're just pawns and savages. It's the Jews that are guilty of the whole busing system and forced integration.

They're guilty of an outright plot to destroy the white race through mongrelization. After we come to power, they'll have to answer for this criminally insane conspiracy."

NSWWP national coordinator Joseph von Wagmann shares his comrade's hatred of Jews.

"Jews are the masters of race-poisoning and brain corruption," he said. "Their ultimate goal is the promiscuous bastardization of Gentiles. The Jew is worse than a disease. He is the deadliest poison ever brought from the gates of hell."

Von Wagmann said his family "will never fall prey to the Jew-brought idea of race-mixing."

"I would kill my daughter before she slept with a nigger," he said.

Von Wagmann was raised on the idea of racial purity. He was born in Germany in 1935 and spent much of his childhood in the Hitler Youth Corps. Four years ago, Allen Vincent introduced him to the American brand of Nazism.

Von Wagmann predicted that a Hitlerian battle between Aryans (championed by the NSWWP) and non-Aryans will soon put an end to racial conflict in America.

"In such a struggle, one side must be abolished," he said.

"If we win, we will destroy Jews and Jewish sympathizers down to their roots. There will be no toleration. The last Communist shall either be converted or eradicated. There is no middle ground. The spirit of Adolf Hitler will guide us in that last reckoning, the final judgment day of the Jews and their cohorts."

It would be easy to discount Vincent and von Wagmann as a pair of isolated fanatics if they were alone in their beliefs. It appears, though, that they are not.

More than a hundred people regularly attend Nazi meetings in San Francisco and, according to Vincent, "they are only the tip of the iceberg."

Vincent said large segments of the San Francisco and San Jose police departments belong to his group. A Nazi offshoot, known as the Aryan Brotherhood, is drawing recruits from local prisons, particularly Folsom and San Quentin.

Hitlerism seems to be on the rise elsewhere in the country as well.

In Georgia, neo-Nazi J.B. Stoner, a self-avowed racist who told The Daily Californian that "Adolf Hitler was the greatest guy since Christ and all the apostles," won nearly 70,000 votes in a 1974 gubernatorial election.

Nazi candidate Frank Collins won 16 per cent of the vote in a Chicago alderman election, while a Nazi in another ward won 10 per cent of the vote, placing third in an election with six candidates.

"We're gaining strength all the time; in our march towards victory," von Wagmann said. "When we do win, the world will be amazed at what we will do."

"I really admire Hitler," Jim, a 20-year-old Berkeley resident whispered. "He was a great man. He pulled his people together. He made a few mistakes — like attacking Russia and not arming Normandy enough — but besides that he was a good leader."

Jim was talking during a recent meeting of the San Francisco branch of the National Socialist White Worker's Party (NSWP), the American offshoot of Adolf Hitler's Nazi party.

"It's about time whites got together in an organization like this," he said after the meeting. "Just look at what's happening around us. Blacks are taking over. I think that guy Bakke is absolutely right. Federal law is beginning to build up blacks and put down whites."

Over a dozen Nazis under the age of 30 attended the meeting. Like Jim, they expressed admiration for Adolf Hitler.

"Hitler was a great man," Bob, a 19-year-old college student from the central valley said. "He brought his country out of the Depression and created one of the finest military forces in the world."

Although Jim and his young friends wore long hair and talked about their favorite rock groups (Hitler denounced any music having "a savage jungle beat"), that did not seem to matter to the older Nazis around them.

"We're looking for a new brand of Nazi," one forty-ish party member said. "We don't care if they ~~swear~~ or use cuss words, just as long as they fight for their race."

The attraction of young people to Nazi-like groups is not new. Young people formed the bulk of the American Nazi Party during the early 1960s and have provided the leadership for other Hitlerite organizations.

Ku Klux Klan grand dragon David Duke, 26, has said his college recruitment program is doing "extraordinarily well" while J. B. Stoner, leader of the neo-Nazi National States' Rights Party, said, "Young people are among my most active supporters."

There seems to be a growing ambivalence to the memory of Adolph Hitler even among young people outside the Hitlerite movements. In a recent San Francisco Chronicle "Question Man" column, five people were asked which historical figure fascinated them the most. Two, both in their early twenties, answered "Adolf Hitler."

"He united his country," Dan MacArthur, a business administration student, said, "and started a really big head trip — making them think they were the Master Race."

Legal messenger Larry Lopez said he "liked the way Hitler mobilized his military forces" and "especially admired the SS."

"This is a new generation," Jim Ruderman, San Francisco regional director of the Anti-Defamation League, told The Daily Californian. "Young people today just don't know that much about recent history. There's a general dearth of knowledge about the Nazi era."

Ruderman cited a 1976 trial of two American Nazis in Milwaukee in which potential jurors were questioned about their knowledge of Hitler to determine whether they were prejudiced against Nazis. None of the 23 people questioned said they were aware of Hitler's death-camp persecutions of the Jews.

"I've heard of Nazis," one juror said, "but I don't listen to the news all that much." Another juror said he knew little more about the Nazis other than the Countless "causes" exist at any given time. Too many in fact for the common man to discern the TRUTH from diversion. Time, however, is the great tester and it is sad that it often requires longer than the human life span for the truth to be re-

What are these faiths? Those of our Race and those of our enemies' races. Only we recognize one another today in the midst of the worst confusion of any point in time. The rest of the world goes by and it is up to the leaders - the most DEDICATED

"What do Jews do to Gentile children?" her father asked.

"They kill them," she smiled. She knew the answer to this question. "If they're baby whites, they kill them."

"One of the world's best kept secrets are the ritual murders carried out by Jewish rabbis," von Wagmann explained. "Thousands of white children disappear every year that way."

The training of other Nazi ch ldren is almost as intense.

"What kind of hassles have you run into with Jews and niggers at your school?" stormtroop leader Karl Herler asked his seven-year-old daughter Debbie.

"I don't know," she replied.

"Just say blacks," Vincent suggested. "She probably doesn't know how to distinguish the Jews yet. How about the blacks, Debbie?"

"They don't treat me nice. They push white kids around. They hug whites like friends and then push them over and they get hurt. They get away with it just because they're Jews and niggers."

"What would your kike principal do to you if you acted like that?" Herler asked.

"He wouldn't let me play games or go to recess. He'd just tell me to sit on the bench for the rest of the day."

Nazi parents dislike the way public school are run.

"A lot of things get taken out of the parent's hands," NSWWP women's organizer Margaret Herler said. "Teachers override the parents' desires. Debbie almost got spanked just because she refused to play with blacks."

The Nazis said they are considering building their own school.

"In public schools, we learn mostly about blacks, about Africa and Asia," Victoria von Wagmann said. "They barely teach about Europe. We've got to do something about this. That's why we're trying to establish our own white school."

A nearby Nazi smiled proudly. "Adolf Hitler said 'Give me a child until he's seven and he'll be a Nazi for the rest of his life,'" she said. "If it's true, this party is going to be around an awful long time."

Photos by Michael Hill

Adolf Hitler is quoted as saying, "Give me a child until he's seven and he'll be a Nazi for the rest of his life." Today's Nazis have done their best to turn their children into Hitlerites for life. The only time something has proved truly invincible is when no enemies are left alive to claim otherwise. This is our goal: The safety and security of the White Race. We fight in our own areas and according to our terrain. Yet we must fight together nationally and world-wide. Not only must we know one another, we must recommend those we know to be the BEST and most trustworthy to you who may be outside our own area of operation.

Richard Bradley is now in the West Virginia State Prison doing Life Without Mercy - which means he can never make parole - but his spirit is not broken. He is still proud of being a White man and still willing to defend himself or other White men against the growing nigger menace.

But Richard's situation brings one question to my mind: How long will the White Race continue to ignore its heroes? Why is it that White men do not rally to the defense of their own kind? Galveston — The avowed leader of the American Nazi party (ANP) here, Michael B. Ange, 38, filed for mayor in the April 2 city election, but City Atty. Robert V. Shattuck said state law prohibits his name being on the ballot.

Ange, chief engineer on a sulfur tanker which operates from here, sent his application by certified mail in an envelope adorned with swastikas, the slogan "White Power" and a telephone number.

A resident here 10 years, Ange said in a phone interview he joined the ANP in Virginia 10 years ago. He said the Galveston unit has 500 members.

Shattuck cited the Texas Election Code, which says no candidate of the Nazi party "shall ever be allowed a place on the official ballot at any election in the state."

With the filing deadline March 2, six persons, including Ange, have filed for mayor, not including incumbent R. A. Apffel. Fourteen have filed for seven at-large City Council seats, including Councilwoman Edna Fuller.

GALVESTON — Michael Ange says he is an American NAZI. He also says he wants to be mayor of Galveston.

Ange has filed with the city secretary of Galveston to run for the mayor's office currently held by R.A. Apifel.

According to the city secretary, Ange's application is in order, but he may still not be able to run due to a long standing clause in the state election code that prohibits members of the Communist's, fascist, or Nazi party from running for public office in Texas.

Although the law may not still be valid, says city secretary Patsy Poole, it still has to be checked out by the city attorney.

Ange is not taking it so calmly.

"It appears City Council is going to try and block my running for mayor," says Ange who is a unit leader for the National Socialist's Workers Party in Galveston County.

Ange says there will be a rally Monday in Galveston to protest the state code prohibiting his running on the Nazi party ticket. He says he has called the national leader of the Nazi party, Allen Vincent—who with lawyers and bail bondsmen—will attend.

Ange admits the National Socialist White Power Party is a racist party dedicated to the preservation of the white race.

He says he is not for killing Jews or Blacks, but only wishes to see a separation of the races to "preserve the purity of the white race," and blames misconception of the Nazi party on "Jewish propaganda."

"We have 500 members and several thousand supporters in Galveston County," according to Ange. He claims many people support the Nazi party but are afraid to do so openly for fear of per-

The city attorney said later Ange is to be treated "exactly the same as any other candidate who files for office," and he assumes Ange meets the candidacy qualifications.

When Vincent arrived at the airport Monday morning, the group departed in a station wagon on a round-about route to Ange's apartment, including a drive through the parking lot of a supermarket.

People entering or leaving city hall did not even slow up as Vincent delivered his brief speech in front of several police officers and four reporters. One passerby stopped, listened briefly, then wandered off shaking his head.

in plain clothes, passing out literature among the crowd.

The ideal National Socialist is a volunteer. He pays his monthly dues on time and throws in a little extra whenever he can. He spreads the Word. He talks about National Socialism to people who might be receptive, and passes out Party literature to his classmates or co-workers. He is not motivated so much by hatred of the enemy as by a deep love and concern for his people, their nation and way of life. He is upstanding in all things, and no blemish on his character can shame him or his comrades. If he has any particular talents or abilities, he tries to put them at the service of the Party in some way. He is an idealist, but not a starry-eyed dreamer. He believes that a society built on National Socialism will approach, if not surpass the golden age splendor of Ancient Greece, Rome or the Third Reich. He is a fanatic, a word which has been twisted by our enemies to imply a kind of madness. For him, being a fanatic means he is willing to die for his people, that he is uncompromising in his allegiance to National Socialist principles.

National Socialism is itself an attitude, a way of viewing all life - realistically, aggressively, yet positively. National Socialism is the heroization of man, an idea which ennobles man and uplifts him through civilized greatness. National Socialism is Nature's Law applied to human society. National Socialism is a "back to Nature" movement, which strives after the eternal beauty and order of Nature Herself.

Socialist is loyal unto death. A very loyal comrade is more worthy than a less loyal comrade of greater intelligence. His loyalty is demonstrated by what he does for the Party, and nothing else. FIGHT!

The poison lies of our enemies cannot sway him from his loyalty to the Idea or the Party Leadership. He is a fighter, an activist in all things. For the ideal National Socialist, the old Fascist slogan is his own, personal motto - BELIEVE! OBEY!

Who is the ideal National Socialist? He CAN be YOU!

POLITICAL PARTIES IN AMERICA TODAY

by GERHARD LAUCK

What is the average political party in "democratic" America all about? Considering the fact that political parties are not even MENTIONED in the American constitution, this is certainly a reasonable enough question.

The average, established political party competes with another political party for positions in government. These positions go to the party winning the most votes, even if half the eligible voters reject both of them and do not even bother to vote at all. At any rate, some people do vote - usually for the party they dislike the least - and for the party that gets (or steals) the most... hands out thousands of high-paying government jobs to its key people regardless whether or not these people have any real ability to perform the duties these positions require. These fancy jobs are the "spoils" and no one expects the government to do any work anyway.

The best these Twentieth Century carpetbaggers can do is waste tax dollars on their excessive salaries and bureaucratic inefficiency. And the worst they can do is simply give it all away to the degenerates, loafers, and of course niggers on welfare who devour huge amounts of money... leaving little or nothing for the honest White worker down on his luck, sick or disabled and hence unable to work through no fault of his own.

These political parties never appeal to reason. "Image" sells them better than logic. But "Image" is expensive, even if their particular party is the darling of the Jewish-controlled mass media. They therefore need money. This money is supplied by numerous special interest groups and businesses, which in affect "buy" government officials - especially congressmen and senators - who "earn their keep" by passing bills favorable to whatever interest group that sponsors (i.e. finances) their political careers and rejecting those bills that are not. These paid political whores can more readily survive the worst scandal that may "embarrass" them with the public through their own assinine or immoral behavior than disobedience to the orders of their behind-the-scenes bosses. This fact dispells the ridiculous illusion that they are the "people's representatives". Politicians may fight among themselves for a higher position with a bigger salary, but they never have any real, independent power of their own. They never make major decisions without orders "from above", where all major changes in fact originate.

The most powerful interest group in America today is the JEWS. They control the mass media, the banking system, most major businesses, and - through all of them - the government. This or that political lobby or business concern may "fight it out" for a bigger piece of the pie, but the pie sits on the table in front of the Jew, who can intervene at any time if it suits him to do so. As long as the petty squabbles do not affect his domination, he may simply sit and watch the small-time political crooks wrangle over a bone, stepping all over the "little people" and never giving primary if any consideration to the best interests of the nation as a whole.

No government can challenge the Jewish domination of America and survive. That is why every politician in America supports massive aid to the bandit state of "Israel", despite the fact that this simply alienates the Arabs who have no quarrel with us otherwise and results in higher oil prices..

Even the danger of an utterly unnecessary WAR completely contrary to the best interests of the American people does not deter these traitors from their slavish obedience to the Jewish masters in control of American government and economy. They are selling their services to their Jewish masters as front men for this Jewish dictatorship. They humans so that they can terrorize, rape and pillage White people.

That is what the established political parties are all about! What the American people need is a new political party that will courageously and openly attack the "Republincrats" for the race-traitors which they are: Representing two sides of the same Jewish coin:

The NATIONAL SOCIALISTS are the champions of the oppressed White Majority of a White America that has been enslaved by the International Jew, the same Jew who has granted special "rights" to hordes of black sub-youth as cannon-fodder to the Israeli butchers in a senseless Mideast war. In exchange, they receive money, impressive posts and prestige and become "great men"...

If you want Jews, niggers and a depression, vote REPUBLICAN.

If you want Jews, niggers and a war, vote DEMOCRAT.

If you want WHITE POWER... VOTE NATIONAL SOCIALIST!

Terrifying study of our Nazis

By Jeanne Miller

"California Reich," which opened yesterday at the Cento Cedar Cinema, is a terrifying study of the National Socialist White People's Party, made by young film-makers Walter Parkes and Keith Critchlow.

The film, which was nominated this year for an Oscar as Best Documentary, is infinitely more chilling than those made about the German Nazis. For these are our own home-grown bully boys, our countrymen and even members of our own community, since most of the action was shot in San Francisco.

The film-makers provide no narration, exposition or voice-over. They let the semi-literate Nazis speak for themselves in displaying the awesome hate they feel for non-whites.

It is the sociological, rather than the political importance of the movement that fascinated Parkes and Critchlow. Actually, these ignorant neo-Nazis have no coherent political position. Their views are merely confused, shrill, mindless rhetoric that makes no sense whatsoever.

But their rabid reactions to the world around them are projected with sickening impact as we visit not only their rallies and meeting halls, but their homes where they spew out their raging hate for Jews and blacks.

The leader of the San Francisco Party, Allen Vincent, who spent 20 of his 40 years in reformatories and penitentiaries, explains how he found an end to loneliness in the movement. A housewife, straight out of a baking products TV commercial, gives her recipe for a festive swastika cake, and a Santa Claus arrives at a Christmas party wearing the repellent arm-band.

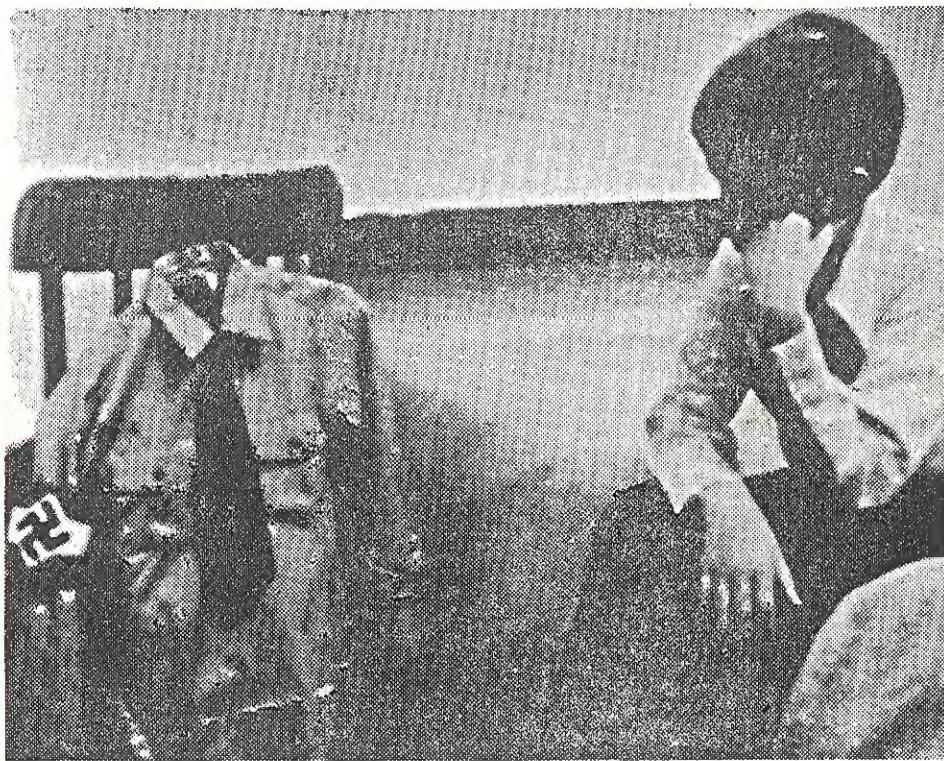

But the most loathesome sequences are those in which we see the parents' indoctrination of pint-sized racists in the persons of their four- and five-year-old children.

One especially frightening scene shows a close-knit Nazi family spending a Sunday afternoon together in their home. The mother asks two toddlers: "Who don't we like?" "Jews! Niggers!" the children scream delightedly. "What do we do to them?" she asks. "Stomp them," shout the children with cherubic smiles.

The reason the film is so stunningly effective is that the film-makers do not set out to make cartoon-like monsters of the Nazis. Instead, the subjects emerge as ordinary blue-collar types who might live next door, with all the problems and frustrations of this society leading them into pathological hatred and bigotry.

The American Nazis claim only 2,000 members. But the film's final sequence quotes a 1923 editorial in the New York Times that dismisses Hitler and his then 2,000 Nazis as "comic opera buffoons."

This, of course, is the absolutely mind-boggling impact of the film — that a nucleus of just such misfits as the American Nazis were responsible for the worst holocaust in modern history.
